

DOCUMENTATION

The portfolio project is a website showing my skills and projects. It is composed of several parts:

- One part Presentation.
- One part CV.
- A part regrouping my projects.

A large part of the information is stored in a database, the others come from the API of the French national education system.

Each project presented is clickable and link to the project and/or associated github.